

Witness testimony for unit QCF272v2: Installing Underlay, Battens and Roofing Components in the Workplace

Learner name: .

Within the last three years the above named, at various stages during construction work, demonstrated the following:	Initials
Installing roofing backgrounds and components to roofs with verges, hips, ridges and valleys and abutments to contractor's working instructions for:
- underlay, battens and counter-battens
- sand and cement
- undercloaks
- eaves ventilation systems
- underlay support trays
- fire-breaks.
Demonstrating the following skills when installing underlay, battens and roofing components: measuring, cutting, marking out, positioning and fixing.
Working to the required specification and within programme.
Checking the information they have been given and identifying the type, size, position and quantity of materials required.
Organising their own work, requesting the materials and plant required and awareness of the associated health hazards.
Reporting any defects or inaccuracies in information to their supervisor and agreeing and implementing corrective action.
Protecting the surrounding areas, other work, materials and equipment from damage that may be caused by their work.
Appropriate PPE for the task worn at all times, in compliance with the company's health and safety policy and safety signs.
Aware of and can identify actual and potential hazards in the workplace and report these to their supervisor to agree and implement corrective action.
Tools and equipment maintained and left safe and secure.

This witness testimony is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Signed: Print name:

Position:

Telephone: Date:

Company name and address:

Postcode: